A Minor Canon of Westminster
Fined for Drunkenness.

A SERIOUS SITUATION IN BRAZIL.

The Parnellite Assault on the Waterloo
Convention—The Healy-McDermott
Feud—Stoned From the Roof of the Market House, Etc., Etc.

A Canon of Westminster Fined for Drunkenness.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—On Tuesday evening Rev. Frederick Harford, said to be a minor canon of Westminster, saw the police helping a hysterical woman into a cab in front of a saloon. Harford, who appeared to be in a somewhat inebriated condition, protested against the tendency of the police in not arresting the woman, and said that she was drunk, and ought to be in custody. The police paid no attention to the canon at first, only telling him to get off and mind his own business. This made the reverend gentleman more effusive, and the police were at last obliged to arrest him. They entered the church of drunkenness against him.

The appearance of a canon of Westminster in the police court, even though but a minor canon, created a great sensation. Harford was dressed in the most correct garb, and was rather well in appearance for a clergyman of years of age. He denied that he was drunk, but admitted that he had been dining. The evidence of his disorderly conduct was overwhelming, and the magistrate, after severely censuring him, imposed a fine of two pounds, which the canon at once paid.

The Parnellite Assault on the Waterloo Convention.

DUBLIN, Nov. 4.—The convention of the national federation at Waterloo is attended by many priests, and several of these offered to assist the police in beating off the Parnellite assault. The police, however, declined any aid, although they have applied for reinforcements.

The police fought at a great disadvantage in the riot to-day, owing to the number of women in the crowd, with whom the officers did not care to deal too vigorously. One woman laid about her in such a vigorous way as to put two constables hors de combat. It took three others to beat her kicking and screaming, a prisoner, from the melee, her screams being every now and then mixed with yells of "murderers," "thieves," and other epithets intended for the McGarthys.

But for the police it is most certain that the convention would have been overwhelmed by a raging mob, bent upon annihilation. A number of Parnellites have come from Dublin to the scene, and there is reason to apprehend more trouble before the convention completes its session.

The Boulogne Revolution.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Standard says of the Boulogne revolution: "The point of interest is that Mr. Gladstone consented to give a precise undertaking, and that he demanded that secrecy be preserved. Only if the liberals, when in office, broke their word, would they be controverted by their pledges. The St. James Gazette says: Mr. O'Brien's account of the Boulogne revolution confirms our previous criticisms. We only failed to make them loud enough. The proceedings of committee-room fifteen were to be annulled and the patriots were to apologize to Parnell and the priests to bless him on his retirement from the clump, and he would not consent to this compromise unless his successor was Mr. O'Brien. Parnell insisted on having his successor in his pocket."

The Healy-McDermott Feud.

DUBLIN, Nov. 5.—The Fenians are again furiously excited over the news from Waterloo and the fact that Healy, in making a speech at an anti-Parnellite meeting, after he was thrashed by McDermott, again alluded to Mrs. Parnell as an English prostitute. It is said that Healy has armed himself and will attempt to kill McDermott if the latter repeats the assault. To a friend McDermott said yesterday that every time Healy was hit he gave a groan of pain and begged piteously to be allowed to get up, but he (McDermott) would not allow Healy to get up without a promise from the latter never again to defame Mrs. Parnell. McDermott says he believed Healy would have made the promise but for the interference of other people, who pushed McDermott away.

The Situation in Brazil.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Considerable uneasiness is felt here in regard to the situation in Brazil, and it is evident that the Anglo-Brazilian interests would be gratified by the downfall of Lia Fouscena, who is blamed for the reciprocity treaty with America, and whose course has been consistently unfriendly to Great Britain. A private dispatch from Rio de Janeiro says that Fouscena is meeting unexpected opposition in the Brazilian congress; that his course is arbitrary, and that there is some danger of revolution.

Stoned From the Roof of the Market House.

CORK, Nov. 5.—The Parnellites stoned the anti-Parnellites from the roof of the Cork market yesterday. Wm. O'Brien received a blow on the head, and Mr. Turner was struck to the ground. The man who was driving the car in which the two sat, had his skull fractured. Several Parnellites made an attack on two women belonging to their friends with sticks, and were stoutly resisted. The hospital is kept busy attending to the injured.

Russian Aggression.

VIRNA, Nov. 5.—Near Chelna, Russian Poland, the Russian frontier guard seized two women belonging to Transilvania, who the Russians claimed had no right there. A farmer named Dobrak was with the women, and attempted to protect them. The women made their escape, but Dobrak was struck with a rifle by the guards and carried off a prisoner. Dobrak's brother went to assist in giving surety for Dobrak, and was also detained. The matter is being inquired into by the German authorities.

The Kaiser's Latest Hobby.

BERLIN, Nov. 5.—The Kaiser's latest hobby is said to be capital punishment. He has ordered the minister of justice to supply him with a digest of facts and statistics on the subject both relating to Germany and to other countries. Whether the Kaiser means to recommend abolition or a reform in the method of infliction is not known.

Return of Lord Hawke and His Critics.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—Lord Hawke and his team of cricketers arrived at Queens-town yesterday on the steamer City of New York. He expresses himself as highly gratified with his American tour, and says that he will revisit the United States in 1895 with another picked team of players.

Abandoned Russian Soldiers Dying of Typhus.

VIRNA, Nov. 5.—It is reported that nearly 2,000 of the Russian troops on the Pruth have perished of typhus. When the bulk of the force was removed some distance inland, the sick were left almost without help, and these are perishing daily.

A Little Light on a Dark Situation.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 5.—The latest advices from the famous district of Samara state that nearly all the able-bodied male peasants are now at work on government roads, and that the death rate is diminishing, although many horrible cases of starvation are still reported.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Report of Gen. Flagler, Chief of the Ordnance Bureau.

A SURPRISING JUDICIAL DECISION.

An Emphatic Contradiction—Information From Brazil—A Court of Inquiry Ordered—Lottery Matter in the Mail.

Report of Chief of Ordnance Bureau Gen. Flagler.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Gen. Flagler, chief of the ordnance bureau of the war department, says in his annual report just submitted to the secretary of war, that improvements on the gun factory at Watervliet arsenal have been almost completed, and he expects to have them completed by the end of this month. When the improvements are completed, he estimates that the capacity of the gun factory will be sufficient to turn out twelve 8-inch, fifteen 10-inch, fifteen 12-inch and three 16-inch guns per annum, besides performing certain other necessary work.

The difficulties to be surmounted in supplying our fortifications with new model disappearing carriages for large guns is perhaps greater than supplying the guns themselves, and the work is some years behind the guns, and he especially desires that the secretary of war urge congress to make the necessary appropriations for the manufacture of these carriages. No progress has been made, it is stated, by the factory for the manufacture of these guns.

A reduced number of 9.50 inches was decided upon in a rifle.

Gen. Flagler adds that it is important to state that up to the present time the investigations made and knowledge gained by the department have not demonstrated so much excellence in the magazine arms which have been used by foreign nations as was expected, and have not shown such perfection in any one of them as would warrant its adoption for our service.

A smokeless powder for such arms is difficult to obtain up to the present time. As soon as satisfactory powder is obtained, the adoption of the reduced caliber arm will be submitted to a board.

No Information from Chili—American War Ships for Brazil.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Secretary Blaine had no information to give out last night in regard to Chilean affairs, nor had he any news from Brazil.

Secretary Tracy said last night that he had received no information about the congress of Brazil reaching to proclaim martial law and re-establish a dictatorship. The bulletin in the press dispatches yesterday to that effect, which had been shown Secretary Tracy, was all he knew in regard to the matter.

Should trouble occur in Brazil which would require the presence of United States men-of-war to protect our interests there, the United States could, he said, have a much better representation in Brazilian waters than we have at present in Chili. The Essex and Tallapoosa are now there, the latter vessel, however, would be of little service as she is an old wooden ship and will soon be put out of commission. The Yorktown, which is on her way to the Pacific station, if she had no other duty, would be left behind about three days ago and left arrive at Rio de Janeiro in a day or two. The Boston left San Lucia Tuesday on her way to the Pacific station.

In a contingency of this kind, requiring the presence of either of these vessels, they could easily be reached by a dispatch from the department.

The Yankins left the United States for Brazil yesterday about the 10th of October. The presence of the party upon the vessel, however, would be of little service as she is an old wooden ship and will soon be put out of commission. The Yorktown, which is on her way to the Pacific station, if she had no other duty, would be left behind about three days ago and left arrive at Rio de Janeiro in a day or two. The Boston left San Lucia Tuesday on her way to the Pacific station.

The secretary anticipates no trouble between the two countries in case complications arise in the offices of the Brazilian government.

Conservatory Telegrams.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The following telegrams explain themselves:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Nov. 4, 1891.

How Wood, Missouri, Oct. 10.—I congratulate you most heartily upon your splendid victory won by a manly appeal to the intelligence and patriotism of the people always responsive to such appeals.

(Signed.)

OLIVER, O., Nov. 4.

THE PRESIDENT. The returns of Ohio have been magnificent. The party upon the stump has been a success. The party upon the stump has been a success. The party upon the stump has been a success.

(Signed.)

WM. HAIN, CHAIRMAN, COLUMBUS, O., thanks for the good news and congratulations received by a courageous advocacy of right principles.

(Signed.)

A Surprising Judicial Decision.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—In regard to the decision in the Italia case, the attorney general has a dispatch from the United States attorney at Los Angeles, in which it is said: The court in an elaborate written opinion has just decided that the purchase and shipment of arms on the Italia was a legitimate commercial transaction, and that the insurgents were not a state, confederated, or recognized entity.

It is surprising from the fact that Judge Brown, of the southern district of New York, in the case of Mary N. Hogan, said Judge Hughes, of the eastern district of Virginia, in the case of the United States vs. 214 Boxes of Arms (20 Federal report, page 55), have recently decided exactly the reverse. An appeal has been ordered.

A farmer near Albion, Iowa, by the name of J. E. Wolf, has found a cure for cramp. He says: "For the last eight years I have recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for cramp. It is a great cure for cramp, and the worst case, if taken in time. On the 20th of this month, my boy, four years old, had the cramp very bad and three doses cured him. I would not without it in my family." If the remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, it will invariably prevent the cramp. 50 cent bottles for sale by W. F. Neider.

Why?
There of "Royal" Port Wine" and on will know why we call it "Royal." A glass held up to the light will show why we call it "Royal." $5.00 reward for any bottle of this wine found under five years old. It is grand in sickness, or where a strengthening cordial is required; recommended by physicians. Sold only in quart bottles. Price, $1. For sale by Dr. A. J. Stoner.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

Nine Men Crushed Out of All Semblance to Humanity

BY FALLING FROM A HOISTING CAGE

A Distance of More Than Seven Hundred Feet, in the Anaconda Mine at Butte, Mont.—The Killed and Fatally Injured.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 5.—The most terrible accident in the history of Montana occurred in the Anaconda mine a few minutes after midnight yesterday morning in which nine men were killed and one injured. The killed are James O'Donnell, Chas. M. Evans, John Ritchie, Jas. G. Sullivan, Patrick Muligan, Michael McAvoy, James Roach, Wm. Martin, Dennis Shaughnessy, Jerry Harrington is injured but not fatally.

At the 900 foot level a large number of men were waiting to be raised to the surface for their lunch. The cage has an upper and lower deck, and the rules are that only nine men shall be allowed on each deck. In this case, however, the men crowded into the cage, and it is believed not less than twenty started on the terrible ride to death.

When between the 300 and 400 foot levels, James O'Donnell, who was on the upper deck, lost his self-possession and fell over the side of the cage. He fell between the cage and the wall of the shaft down to the lower deck of the cage, where he struck the men crowded in such a way as to knock almost all of them off. Altogether eight men were knocked from the cage down to the pump, which is 1,000 feet below the service. Two others were brought to the surface badly injured and one of these died in a short time. The bodies brought to the surface were managed as to be scarcely recognizable except by their clothing. In some cases the bodies were so crushed that only a basketful of the remains could be gathered. An inquest has been begun but is not yet open.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew rapidly worse, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at King & Wood's drug store.

Gov. CAMPBELL, speaking of his defeat says:

The Democrats made the best fight they could in the face of a Republican majority of 11,000 to start on and the combined opposition of the masses and the capitalists. Besides all this it was a life and death struggle with the Republican party; to defeat Major McKinley, one of the national leaders, and the representative of its chosen idea of protection, meant the downfall and disintegration of the party itself. Party lines were closely drawn.

HENRY M. STANLEY.

Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, says that his trip through the dark forest was characterized by a curious instance of the evil influence upon the human system of the absence of the sun light. The slightest scratch upon the skin of one of his followers would be followed by ulcerous sores that would gangrene and finally result in the death of the victim. What is true of the dark forest is also true of pulmonary trouble, diphtheria and kindred throat trouble which are the offsprings of dampness, too much shade, foul exhalations from sewers and cess pools. One of the best remedies for these troubles is Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure. It is in itself an anti-septic, is clean, purely wholesome, contains no poison, and is remarkably efficacious. For sale by all druggists.

ROW ABOUT A GIRL.

The Racket Ends in a Justice's Court With a Fine.

There was a racket with verbal pyrotechnics in a certain room in a Decatur business block last night because one young man made a remark about a young lady which didn't go nor permeate to the extent of peace and harmony. The story was told in Justice Curtis' court this forenoon when on complaint of Elmer Childers, the defendant, Charles Borley, told the mark on a charge of assault. Childers and Borley are young men who have been pooling their receipts and putting up cash for the same room. Last night they engaged in an altercation, and Childers alleged that Borley jumped on him, threw him on the bed and choked him repeatedly. Borley denied care to have a trial. He pleaded guilty, but in doing so he made a statement to the effect that there was no fight, just a little playfulness. He admitted that he choked Childers, but did it to keep Childers from black-guarding him. The story was received with a smile by the Justice, who fixed the fine at $3 and costs, and when the assessment was paid the curtain went down to slow music and Borley departed, permitting the Justice to take up the next case in order.

Temperance at the Court House.

Another large audience gathered in the Court House last evening to listen and take part in the temperance meeting. All interested in the cause are encouraged with the growing sentiment. The men outnumbered the women. While the sisters were, as usual, at their post of duty loyal and true, the brothers manifested equal fervor and enthusiasm. Nothing but a stenographer could have done justice to Mr. Dunn's talk last evening. It was considered the best of the evening so far. It called several drink-ing men forward to the table who signed the pledge. About seventy new names were added. We learn that the Baptist and Congregational churches made the meeting a subject of special prayer last evening. Perhaps other churches did so. A number were present who are rarely absent from the Wednesday evening prayer meeting. As an emblem of sympathy and interest in the work, large numbers of men and women are putting on the white ribbon to be worn everywhere during the meetings. S. R. Ober led the singing in which the large assembly heartily joined. D. L. Bunn who was detained swelled the chorus near the close of the meeting. The committee was asked for pledges to present to people outside. A beautiful supply of pledges will be printed to-day. "They who go forth sowing shall reap if they faint not."

After a Divorce.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cross has filed a bill for a divorce in the office of Circuit Clerk McClellan, to the January term of court. On the ground of extreme and repeated cruelty the plaintiff asks to be divorced from her husband, Abel W. Cross, to whom she was married at Georgetown, Williamson county, Texas, on May 13, 1875. Because of trouble in the household with the daughter of her husband by his first wife and her seven children, Mrs. Cross left her husband on July 1st the same year of her marriage, and has had no communication with him since. Mrs. Cross is a resident of Decatur. Her solicitor is B. L. Starrett. The defendant is supposed to be in Texas.

Lives Bird Shooting Contest.

A non-contest came off near Jacksonville yesterday between two famous marksmen, well-known all over the state, William Coe, of Waverly, and Charles Strawn, of Jacksonville. Each tried his hand at 100 live birds, Strawn killing 84 and Coe 89. On the other hand, however, eleven of Strawn's sixteen missed birds fell dead on the ground, and Coe's eleven birds were dropped, so that after all it is fair to consider Strawn the better shot of the two. The best run was made by Strawn, who killed fourteen birds in succession. Another contest may be expected from the two before many months.

The tinsel Chinese opera, "Pearl of Pekin," was given at the Grand last night in the presence of a well pleased audience. It was fully as good and by many considered a better performance than on the first presentation of the opera in this city on a former occasion. The principals were all excellent, Edwin Chapman leading as the great Tyfoo in wit, songs and acting. Miss Verona, Miss Stember, Mr. Girard and Mr. Webb were the favorites. The music throughout was good, with the exception of the choruses, which were weak. The costumes were varied, rich and beautiful. Encores were numerous.
